Virginia Civil War Trails

VIRGINIA CIVIL WAR TRAILS

Follow signs with this logo to more than 450 Civil War sites across Virginia. Discover history firsthand while driving and walking through some of the most beautiful landscapes anywhere.

Five regional programs fill in the gaps between the National Parks and highlight some of the lesser-known stories Virginia's history has to offer. Each Civil War Trail is outlined in free, full-color maps available at state welcome centers and visitor centers.

A message from Governor Robert F. McDonnell

The Commonwealth's history should be studied and remembered to better understand the sacrifices of the Virginians who fought and lived during the four tumultuous years of the Civil War. Virginia's Civil War battlefields, parks, and sites of interest – a collection larger than in any other state – cover every region across our Commonwealth.

We welcome the nation and the world to Virginia during the sesquicentennial of the Civil War and Emancipation and we hope you will enjoy your time in our beautiful and historic Commonwealth.
