

DRPT

Every $1 invested in public transportation generates approximately $4 in economic returns

Residential property values perform notably better near public transportation with high-frequency service

A two-person household can save an average of $10,000 a year by downsizing to one car

Over 15,000 jobs are supported per year for every $1 billion invested in public transportation capital improvement projects

Each individual freight railcar carries the equivalent of four trucks

