Introduction

The Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) contracted AECOM to conduct an architectural history survey in support of an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) associated with proposed transportation improvements along the US Route 220 corridor between the US Route 58/220 Bypass south of Martinsville in Henry County, Virginia and the North Carolina state line (Figure 1). The EIS considers multiple design alternatives; however, only Alternatives A, B, and C are assessed as part of this Management Summary. The proposed routes range between 7.3 and 7.7 miles long and include 400-foot wide corridors that expand as necessary to accommodate new and/or improved interchanges. VDOT provided a GIS file showing the route alternatives and properties within the APEs of each alternative, which guided the investigation.

Work was conducted in accordance with Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966, as amended, the Archaeological Resources Protection Act (U.S. Department of the Interior [USDI] 1979), and the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation's "Protection of Historic and Cultural Properties" (36 CFR 800; USDI 2004). The study also conformed to the DHR's Guidelines for Conducting Historic Resources Survey in Virginia (DHR 2011), The Virginia Department of Transportation's Expectations and Standard Products for Cultural Resource Surveys (VDOT 2016), and the Programmatic Agreement between the Virginia Departments of Transportation and Historic Resources Concerning Interagency Project Coordination (VDOT and DHR 1999).

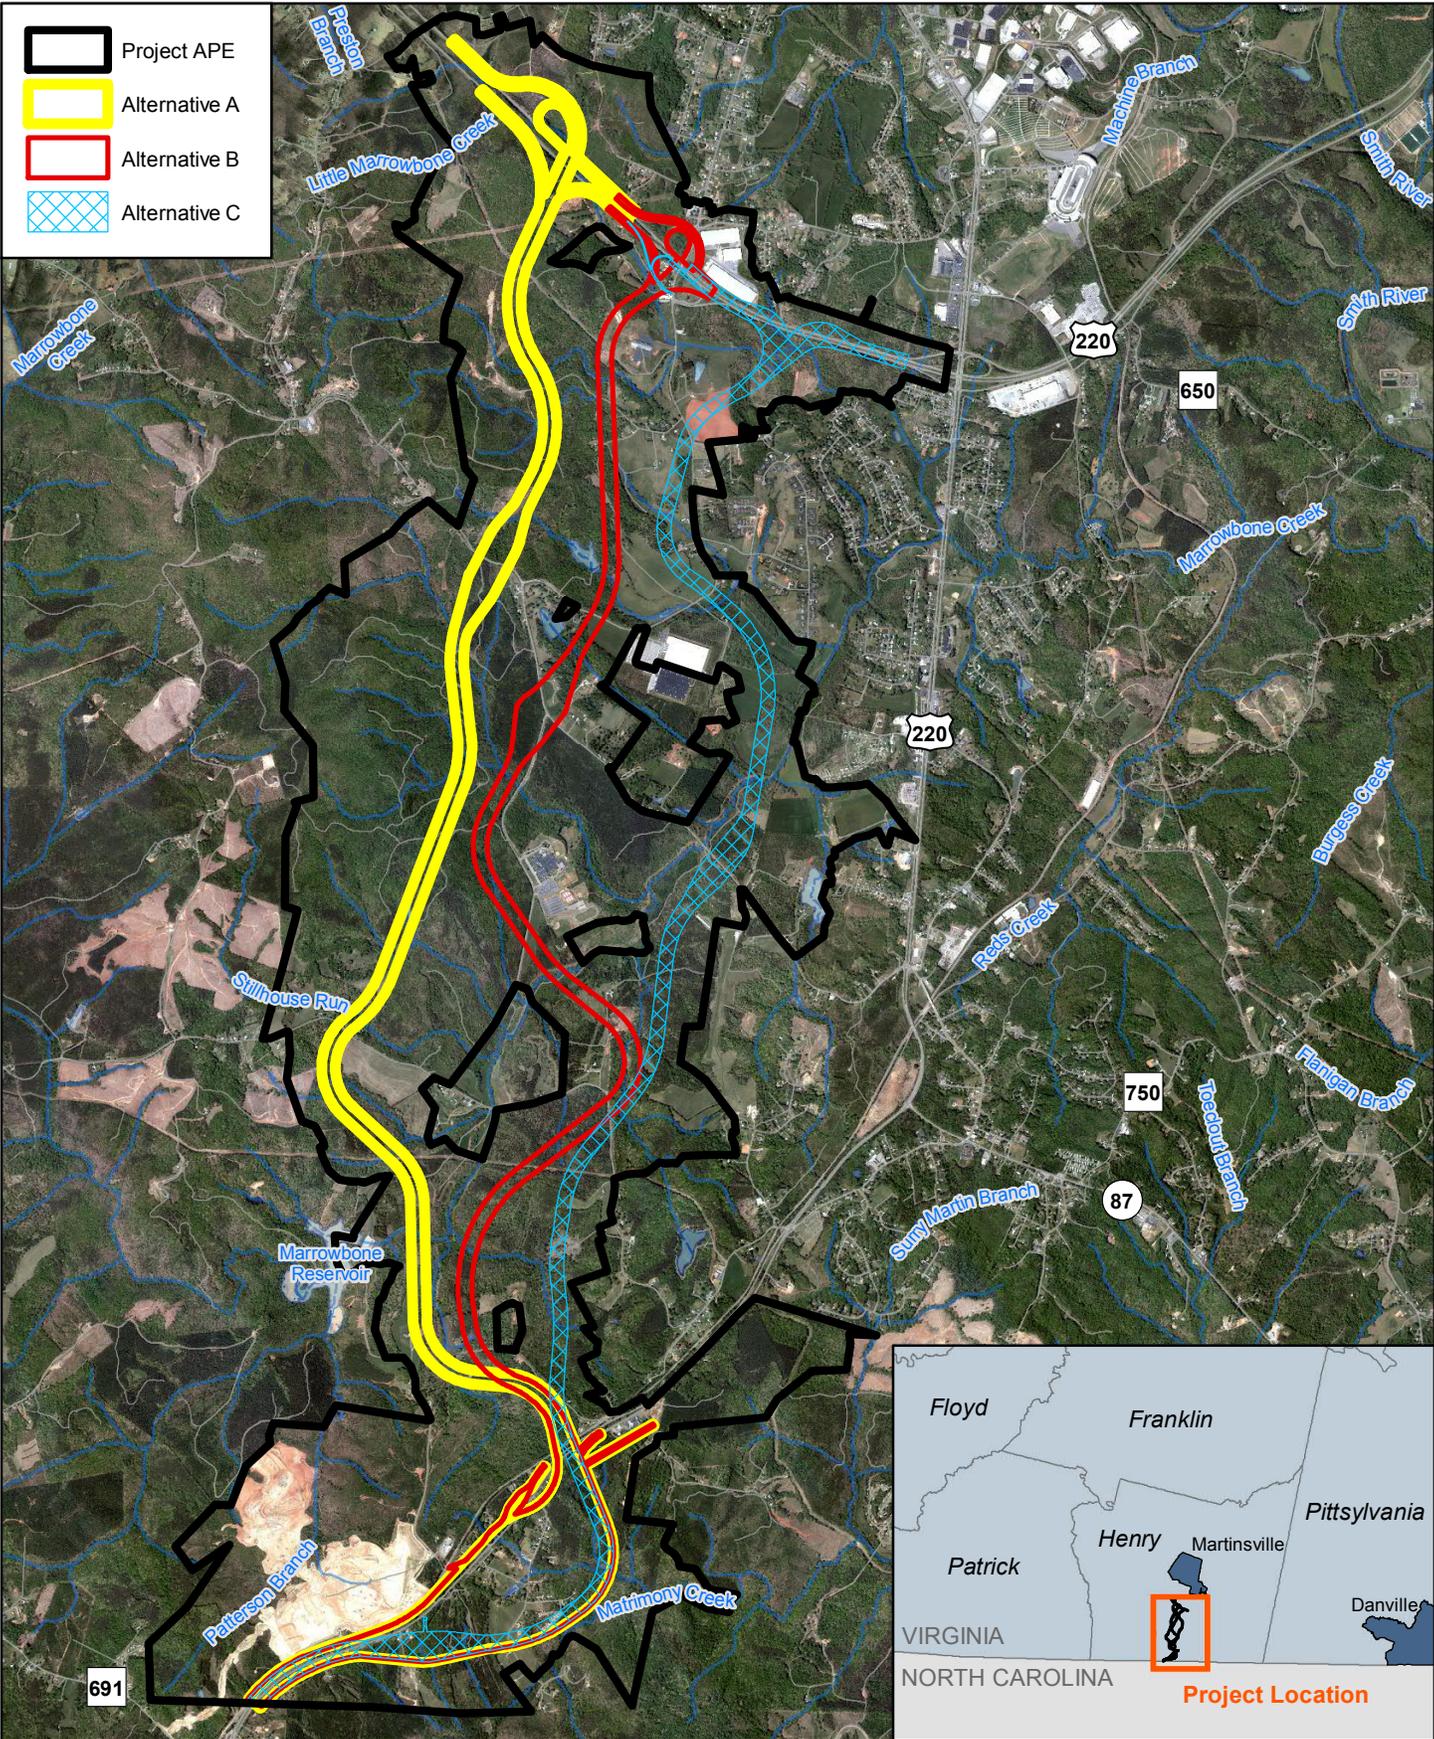

The field survey was conducted in three mobilizations during the weeks of May 13, June 2, and June 19, 2019. Mikayla Raymond and Sarah Potere served as architectural historians. This report presents the preliminary results of the architectural field investigation to inform alternative analyses.

Methods

The goal of the architectural survey was to identify above-ground resources eligible for the National Register of Historic Places (NRHP) that may be affected, directly or indirectly, from construction of the Martinsville Southern Connector along Alternatives A, B, or C.

A reconnaissance-level architectural survey was completed on resources that meet the NRHP age criteria of 50 years or older by the year 2028 (construction date 1978). Properties that contained buildings with post-1978 construction dates were not surveyed. Construction dates were verified through review of tax records and historic aerial photographs. Previously recorded resources recorded more than five years ago were resurveyed.

During the survey, each resource was documented through photographs capturing the primary elevation, oblique angles, and general setting. Written notes and mapping were also completed. Resources were evaluated for integrity and NRHP potential under four criteria, to the extent possible: Criterion A for association with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our history; Criterion B for association with people significant in our nation's history; Criterion C for embodiment of distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction, or that represent the work of a master, or possess high artistic values; and Criterion D for potential to yield information important to history.

Background Review

AECOM conducted a background literature review in order to understand what type of resources would likely be encountered during the survey. Research included a review of information provided by VDOT and records on file with DHR available through the online Virginia Cultural Resources Information System (VCRIS). VCRIS contained information about previously recorded architectural resources and previous cultural resources investigations. VDOT provided a summary of previously recorded resources within the APE and a map of known cemeteries, including those identified by VDOT survey personnel. Information about previously recorded archaeological sites and archaeological potential within the APE are discussed separately in the Phase Ia Archaeological Assessment (Regan 2019).

Two previous systematic reconnaissance architectural history survey have been conducted within the APE. In 2008 and 2009, Circa Cultural Resource Management conducted a reconnaissance architectural survey for Henry County of the Roma Tract (Holma 2009). As a result of that investigation, researchers documented seven resources within the current APE (044-5182, 044-5183, 044-5184, 044-5185, 044-5186, 044-5187, and 044-5188). The three architectural resources have been determined not eligible, while the four cemeteries were determined eligible. The Payne Cemetery, 044-5184, has since been excavated archaeologically and reinterred next to the Watkins Cemetery, 044-5188.

In 2009, Circa Cultural Resource Management conducted a Phase I cultural resources survey of the Sharpe Tract prior to development (Tyrer et al. 2009). Two resources within the current APE were documented as part of that investigation (044-5455 and 044-5456). Both of these tobacco barns were determined not eligible.

Including those properties noted above, 14 architectural resources have been previously recorded within the APE (Table 1). Initially VDOT identified one additional property (044-0070) as located within the APE, but additional research determined the property is approximately 0.4 miles to the west of the APE.

Results

Architectural historians attempted to access 138 properties to conduct a reconnaissance-level survey, including the 14 previously recorded resources. Appendix A includes a table of all properties investigated. One previously recorded property (Marrowbone Creek Bridge Area 044-0117) is an archaeological site that was erroneously given an above-ground resource number; the site was not evaluated as part of this project. Three properties could not be accessed due to locked gates with no trespassing or firearm-use signs (Table 2).

Table 2. Properties that were Not Accessible

DHR_ID	Property Address	Henry Co. Parcel Id	Property Name	Comment
044-5683	0 SEEBROOK DR (2 parcels)	163970003 163970002	Mobile Park, 0 Seebrook Drive	Inaccessible , although mobile home park not likely eligible based on aerial imagery.
044-5698	RAVENSWOOD LN	600213206	Miles Family Cemetery	Inaccessible ; requires additional survey of cemetery.
044-5717	1750 JOSEPH MARTIN HWY	234220000 234190000 234215001 234190001	Farm and Cemetery, 1750 Joseph Martin Highway	Inaccessible ; requires additional survey of farmstead and reported cemetery.

Three of the architectural properties are eligible or recommended eligible for the NRHP under Criterion C (044-0002, 044-0009, and 044-5731). Belleview (044-0002) was listed on the NRHP in 1974. This ca. 1783 house is a rare surviving example of a late eighteenth century plantation house. While the property suffered a fire in 1993, it has been carefully restored and retains sufficient integrity to convey its significance. Marrowbone (044-0009) was determined eligible in 1996. This ca. 1870 Italianate house is a good example of an uncommon style in the area. The farmstead includes a historic cemetery and several outbuildings. The cabin at 10025 Greensboro Road (044-5731) is a rare example of an eighteenth century building type. While the building was moved to this location, it retains moderate integrity of materials, design, workmanship, and feeling.

Three cemeteries previously determined eligible under Criterion D for their potential to yield significant information retain integrity and eligibility (Patterson Cemetery 044-5182, Price Cemetery 044-5183, and the Watkins Cemetery 044-5188). One additional cemetery is recommended potentially eligible under Criterion D, the Redd Cemetery (044-5695). The Redd cemetery contains graves with burial dates from the 1830s to 1850s, including John Redd, who was a Major in the Revolutionary War. Table 3 presents the properties recommended individually eligible for the NRHP. No potential historic districts were identified.

044-5731	10025 GREENSBORO RD	59120003	Apartment and Log Cabin, 10025 Greensboro Road	Eligible, Criterion C	A, B, C

In total, 127 surveyed properties are recommended not eligible for the NRHP. Four of the ineligible properties are cemeteries that will require compliance with state laws if they will be directly affected by the proposed undertaking. Five of the properties no longer contain a resource due to the resource being moved, demolished, or collapsed and deteriorated. Most resources date to the New Dominion period (1946-1991; n=95). Single dwellings dominate the assemblage. The buildings are common in design and/or do not retain a high level of integrity and therefore are recommended not eligible under Criterion C. The resources are not known to be associated with a significant event or person from local, regional, or national history, and, therefore, are recommended not eligible under Criteria A and B. The properties were not evaluated for archaeological potential, although the above-ground resources do not have significant information potential and are recommended not eligible under Criterion D.
